

Oxford Parkinson's Disease Centre Seminar Series 2010

Date and Time	Speaker and Title	Venue
11 May Tuesday 4pm	Professor Patrik Brundin Lund University, Sweden	Lecture Theatre Dept of Pharmacology
1 June Tuesday 4pm	Professor Julie Williams Department of Psychological Medicine and Neurology, Cardiff University School of Medicine Defining the Genetic Architecture of Alzheimer's Disease	Lecture Theatre Dept of Pharmacology
6 July Tuesday 4pm	Dr Huw Morris Department of Psychological Medicine and Neurology, Cardiff University School of Medicine Clinical and Genetic Analysis of Early Onset Parkinson's Disease	Lecture Theatre Dept of Pharmacology
28 September Tuesday 12pm	Dr Andrew Singleton National Institute on Aging, NIH, USA Identifying and Understanding the Genetic Basis of Parkinson's Disease	Lecture Theatre Dept of Pharmacology
5 October Tuesday 4pm	Professor Steve Dunnett Cardiff School of Biosciences, Cardiff University Functional Mechanisms of Repair and Recovery by Ventral Mesencephalic Transplants in the Striatum	Lecture Theatre Le Gros Clark Building
26 October Tuesday 4pm	Professor Robin Franklin Cambridge Centre for Brain Repair, University of Cambridge CNS remyelination: from biology to therapy	Lecture Theatre Le Gros Clark Building
7 December Tuesday 4pm	Professor David Burn Clinical Ageing Research Unit, Newcastle University Dementia in Parkinson's Disease: What's new?	Lecture Theatre Le Gros Clark Building

For a full list of confirmed speakers, please visit: <http://www.opdc.ox.ac.uk/seminars>

For further information, please contact: opdc.administrator@dpag.ox.ac.uk