

Do you want to know more about Dementia?

Free short talks on Alzheimer's, dementia, current treatments and latest research. For all members of the public.

Date: Saturday 19th March 2016, 10am to 1pm

Venue: Academic Centre, John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford

10:00 Welcome	Professor Richard Wade-Martins, Oxford Alzheimer's Research UK (ARUK) Network
10:10 Funding world class dementia research	Dr Emma O'Brien, ARUK
10:25 The ARUK Oxford Drug Discovery Institute: accelerating drug discovery for dementia	Dr John Davis, ARUK Oxford Drug Discovery Institute
10:40 Using stem cells to understand dementia	Emma Whiteley, University of Oxford
10:55 The dose makes the poison	Dr Mark Dallas, University of Reading
11:10-12:00 Refreshments break with Information Stands inc. Alzheimer's Research UK, ARUK Oxford Drug Discovery Institute, Young Dementia UK, NHS Trust and New Dementia Care.
12:00 Understanding disease mechanisms to identify potential therapies: the road ahead in Alzheimer's	Dr Elena Ribe, University of Oxford
12:15 The importance of early diagnosis (experience of living with Alzheimer's)	Valerie Blumenthal, Novelist
12:30 'Dementia Question Time' – Public Q & A session

For more information, visit www.dpag.ox.ac.uk/aruk/oxford-public-day